

Alissa Hansen
Planning Director, City of Eugene

Alissa Hansen has served as the City of Eugene's Planning Director since January 2020. She has over 23 years of experience as a professional planner including spending the past 19 years with the City of Eugene working on a wide variety of projects ranging from how the city will grow over the next 20 years to how to make it easier to site small homes. She has worked on state, county and local planning issues. Prior to stepping into the Planning Director role, she served as manager of the City's Land Use Planning Section for several years, overseeing the City's review of development applications and working on changes to the City's land use regulations. A resident of Eugene for over 30 years, Alissa has a strong sense of community and is proud to call Eugene home.
